

Notice Regarding Hearing

A hearing has been scheduled for this case on the date and time shown on the attached order, which has been signed by the judge or a clerk of the court. You must come to court, or your attorney must come to court, on the date and time shown in the order if you want to be heard in this matter.

On the first hearing date, the Court will conduct a status/settlement conference. The Court will not take evidence at this first hearing date. If the case is not resolved at the status/settlement conference, the Court will schedule the case for a hearing where it will take evidence, usually within two weeks of the status/settlement conference.

If you do not come to court, or your attorney does not come to court, on the date and time shown on the attached order, the Judge will make a decision based on the papers submitted by the applicant.

SECTION II - NOTICE TO DEFENDANT

You have rights specified in the Connecticut General Statutes, including Chapter 903a, that you may wish to exercise concerning this application for a prejudgment remedy. These rights include the right to a hearing:

- (1) to object to the proposed prejudgment remedy because you have a defense to or set-off against the action or a counterclaim against the plaintiff or because the amount sought in the application for the prejudgment remedy is unreasonably high or because payment of any judgment that may be rendered against you is covered by any insurance that may be available to you;
- (2) to request that the plaintiff post a bond in accordance with section 52-278d of the General Statutes to secure you against any damages that may result from the prejudgment remedy;
- (3) to request that you be allowed to substitute a bond for the prejudgment remedy sought; and
- (4) to show that the property sought to be subjected to the prejudgment remedy is exempt from such a prejudgment remedy.

You may request a hearing to contest the application for a prejudgment remedy, assert any exemption or make a request concerning the posting or substitution of a bond in connection with the prejudgment remedy. The hearing may be requested by any proper motion or by completing section III below and returning this form to the superior court at the Court Address listed above.

You have a right to appear and be heard at the hearing on the application to be held at the above court location on:
